CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Board of Directors and Committees

Committees of the Board

The Board of Directors appoints all members of the Board committees. The Board of Directors has an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee, a Nomination Committee, a Compliance and Quality Committee, and a Strategic Partnering Committee (collectively, the “Standing Committees”).

Director Independence

The operation of the Board of Directors is a dynamic process and the Board of Directors regularly reviews changing legal and regulatory requirements. The Board of Directors presently consists of six members, one of whom is an employee of the Company. Presently, Messrs. Amick and McDade and Drs. Link and Rosenthale are “independent” directors within the meaning of the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and the qualitative listing requirements of The Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”). Each director who serves on the Standing Committees of the Board is “independent” within the meaning of the SEC rules and the qualitative listing requirements of Nasdaq.

Meetings of the Board

The Board of Directors held four regular meetings and two special meetings during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. Antonio Esteve, Ph.D., a member of the Board, attended three meetings of the Board of Directors in person during such fiscal year. Each of the remaining incumbent directors attended, either in person or by telephone, 80% or more of the meetings of the Board of Directors and Standing Committees of the Board of Directors on which he served during such fiscal year.

The Company does not have a formal policy regarding director attendance at the 2008 Annual Meeting, however, it is expected that, absent good reason, all directors will be in attendance. All of the directors attended the Company’s 2007 Annual Meeting.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors currently consists of Max E. Link, Ph.D., Herbert H. McDade, Jr., and Marvin E. Rosenthale, Ph.D. The primary functions of the Audit Committee include:

- overseeing the Company’s financial statements, system of internal controls, auditing, accounting and financial reporting processes;
- providing an independent, direct communication between the Board of Directors and internal auditors;
- appointing, compensating, evaluating and, when appropriate, replacing independent auditors;
- overseeing the Company’s tax compliance;
- reviewing with management and the Company’s independent auditors the annual audit plan;
- reviewing the Audit Committee Charter;
- reviewing and pre-approving audit and permissible non-audit services; and
- reviewing and approving all related-party transactions.

The Audit Committee is also responsible for addressing matters of accounting policy with the Company’s independent accountants. In discharging its role, the Audit Committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention and has full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company. The Audit Committee also has the power to retain such legal, accounting and other advisors, as it deems necessary to carry out its duties. The Audit Committee met seven times during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written Audit Committee Charter. The composition and responsibilities of the Audit Committee and the attributes of its members, as reflected in its Charter, are intended to be in accordance with applicable qualitative listing requirements of Nasdaq and the rules of the SEC for corporate audit committees. All members of the Company's Audit Committee are "independent" as defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules and the financial sophistication requirements of Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4350. The Board of Directors has determined that Max E. Link, Ph.D. is an "audit committee financial expert" as defined under SEC rules.

Report of the Audit Committee ⁽¹⁾

In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the Company's audited consolidated financial statements with management and the Company's independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of such statements with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. This review included a discussion of the acceptability and quality of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements. The independent auditors noted that their representations addressed the matters required to be discussed with the independent auditors by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, "Communication with Audit Committees." The review and discussion with management addressed management's assessment as to the effectiveness, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles, internal control over financial reporting and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. Pursuant to such dialogue, management prepared a report of its assessment of the Company's internal control over financial reporting, identifying the framework used by management in assessing the effectiveness of such internal control. In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence in relation to management and the Company, including matters outlined in the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees" and considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with the Company's independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their audit. The Audit Committee met with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality and efficacy of the Company's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board of Directors has approved) that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 for filing with the SEC. The Audit Committee and the Board of Directors have also recommended the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2008.

The Compensation Committee met five times during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written Compensation Committee Charter. The composition and responsibilities of the Compensation Committee and the attributes of its members, as reflected in its Charter, are intended to be in accordance with applicable qualitative listing requirements of Nasdaq and the rules of the SEC for corporate compensation committees. All members of the Company's Compensation Committee are "independent" as defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules. The Compensation Committee reviews and assesses the adequacy of its charter on an annual basis.

In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Compensation Committee reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section of the Proxy Statement with the Company's management. Based on such review and discussions, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board approved, that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007, and in this Proxy Statement for filing with the SEC.

The Nomination Committee has the authority to designate the nominees to stand for election as director at each annual meeting of the stockholders of the Company and to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors occurring between annual meetings.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written Nomination Committee Charter. The composition and responsibilities of the Nomination Committee and the attributes of its members, as reflected in its Charter, are intended to be in accordance with applicable qualitative listing requirements of Nasdaq and the rules of the SEC for corporate nominating committees. In selecting nominees, the Nomination Committee assesses the independence, character, relevant expertise and experience of candidates and endeavors to collectively establish a number of areas of core competencies, such as business judgment, management, accounting and finance, industry knowledge, leadership, strategic vision, knowledge of international markets and marketing. The Board of Directors may also seek nominees who are widely recognized as leaders in the fields of medicine or the biological sciences, including those who may have received prestigious awards and honors in their fields. (1) Represents the compensation costs of stock options for financial reporting purposes for the year under Financial Accounting Statement 123R ("FAS 123R"), rather than an amount paid to or realized by the Director. See Note 9: "Stock Options and Stock-based Employee Compensation" to the Company's consolidated financial statements set forth in the Company's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 for the assumptions made in determining FAS 123R values. The FAS 123R value as of the grant date for the options is spread over the number of months of service required for the grant to become non-forfeitable. In addition, ratable amounts expensed for grants that were granted in prior years are included, i.e. amounts in respect of grants made in 2006. There can be no assurance that the FAS 123R amounts will ever be realized.

As of December 31, 2007, the aggregate number of option awards outstanding for each director was as follows: Mr. Amick - 150,000; Dr. Esteve - 145,000; Dr. Link - 125,000; Mr. McDade - 175,000; and Dr. Rosenthale - 125,000. The FAS123R grant date value per share for options granted in 2007 was $2.49.

Non-employee directors also are entitled to expense reimbursements for their travel, lodging and other expenses incurred in connection with attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors, Standing Committee meetings and related activities.

Pursuant to the Company's 2007 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "2007 Plan"), non-employee directors of the Company are entitled to receive (i) a one-time award of options for the purchase of 40,000 shares of Common Stock on the date of their initial election or appointment to the Board of Directors, provided that he or she has not previously been a director of the Company, and (ii) for each individual who is to continue to serve as a Director, whether or not that individual is then standing for reelection to the Board, an annual award of options for the purchase of 30,000 shares of Common Stock (together with the one-time award upon initial election, collectively, "Director Options") on the date of each annual meeting of stockholders thereafter, provided he or she has served for at least six months prior to such annual meeting. The exercise price of Director Options is equal to the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock on the date of grant. Director Options vest and become exercisable on the first anniversary of the date of grant and have a term of 10 years measured from the date of grant. Upon cessation of Board service, each director-optionee or his or her legal representative has the right to exercise Director Options for a period of twelve (12) months following the date of cessation of service. Upon the death or disability of a director-optionee, all unvested Director Options vest immediately and become immediately exercisable. The Compensation Committee, in its capacity as 2007 Plan Administrator, has discretion to extend the period during which Director Options may be exercised post-cessation of service and may also provide for vesting of Director Options that are not vested on the date of cessation of service.

The Company has agreed pursuant to its charter documents to indemnify its directors to the maximum extent permissible under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. In addition, the Company has entered into indemnity agreements with certain of its executive officers which provide, among other things, that the Company will indemnify such officer, under the circumstances and to the extent provided for therein, for expenses, damages, judgments, fines and settlements he or she may be required to pay in actions or proceedings to which he or she is or may be made a party by reason of his or her position as an officer or other agent of the Company, and otherwise to the fullest extent permitted under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and the Company's By-Laws.

PROPOSAL II

RATIFICATION OF REGISTERED INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Board of Directors, acting upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, has reappointed the firm of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company’s registered independent public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2008.

Although action by the stockholders in this matter is not required under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the Board of Directors believes that it is appropriate to seek stockholder action regarding this appointment in light of the critical role played by independent auditors in maintaining the integrity of the Company’s financial controls and reporting. If the stockholders fail to ratify the appointment, the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors will reconsider whether or not to retain that firm. Even if the appointment is ratified, the Audit Committee may engage different independent auditors at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

Audit and Non-Audit Fees

The following table presents fees for professional audit services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP for the audit of the Company’s annual consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2007 and December 31, 2006, and fees for other services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP during those periods:

Fee Category:	Fiscal 2007	% of Total	Fiscal 2006	% of Total
Audit Fees	$ 241,000	68%	$ 229,000	66%
Audit-Related Fees	84,000	24%	89,000	26%
Tax Fees	25,000	7%	25,000	7%
All Other Fees	2,000	1%	2,000	1%
Total Fees	$ 352,000	100%	$ 345,000	100%

“Audit Fees” are fees that the Company paid to Ernst & Young LLP for: the audit of the Company’s annual consolidated financial statements; the review of the consolidated financial statements included in the Company’s quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, the attestation of management’s report on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting and services related to registration statements and other offering memoranda. “Audit Related Fees” are fees related to the audit of the Company’s internal control over financial reporting with the objective of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. “Tax Fees” consisted of tax compliance/preparation and other tax services. No portion of these tax fees related to financial information or operational system design or implementation services. “All other fees” are fees for any services not included in the first three categories.

The Audit Committee, or a designated member thereof, pre-approved all audit and non-audit services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP to the Company in 2007.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of all other services by Ernst & Young LLP is compatible with maintaining the independence of Ernst & Young LLP and has concluded that Ernst & Young LLP is independent.

Pre-Approval Policies

The Audit Committee pre-approves all audit and non-audit services provided by the Company's independent auditors prior to the engagement of the independent auditors with respect to such services. A designated member of the Audit Committee has the authority to approve any additional audit services and permissible non-audit services, provided the Chairman of the Audit Committee informs the Audit Committee of such approval at its next regularly scheduled meeting. If specific pre-approval for any services to be provided by the Company's independent auditors is not required, the Company's Chief Financial Officer has the authority to determine whether such services are included within the list of services that have received the general pre-approval of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee must be informed on a timely basis of any such services provided by the Company's independent auditors.

On an ongoing basis, management communicates specific projects and categories of services for which advance approval of the Audit Committee is required. The Audit Committee reviews these requests and advises management and the independent auditors if the Audit Committee pre-approves the engagement of the independent auditors for such projects and services. On a periodic basis, management reports to the Audit Committee the actual spending for such projects and services compared to the approved amounts. The Audit Committee may delegate the ability to pre-approve audit and permitted non-audit services to a sub-committee of the Audit Committee, provided that any such pre-approvals are reported at the next Audit Committee meeting.

Representatives of Ernst & Young LLP are expected to be available at the meeting to respond to appropriate questions and will be given the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote "FOR" this proposal.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Compensation Philosophy

The Company is committed to providing its employees with meaningful work and advancement opportunities, and its stockholders with a superior rate of return. Under the oversight of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, the Company has developed and implemented compensation policies, plans and programs for all executive officers, including its Named Executive Officers (identified in the Summary Compensation Table on page 21 below). The Company provides a total compensation package that is intended to be competitive within the industry to enable the Company to attract and retain high-caliber, qualified executives. The Company's compensation practices are designed to motivate executives over the long term, to align the interests of management and stockholders and to ensure that executives are appropriately rewarded for their accomplishments and the benefits achieved for the Company's stockholders during the relevant fiscal year.

Compensation Program Objectives and Rewards

The Company's compensation philosophy is based on the following objectives and intended rewards:

- Attract, engage and retain the workforce to ensure the Company's long-term success;
- Align employees' interests with the Company's short- and long-term strategic goals and objectives;
- Promote the interests of the Company's stockholders with a goal of increasing shareholder value;
- Acknowledge and respond to changes in compensation for similar executive positions at comparable companies in the Company's competitive marketplace; and
- Link compensation directly to the performance of the Company and acknowledge and differentiate among individual contributors to the achievement of corporate results.

Executive Compensation Structure

The primary components of executive compensation are (i) competitive base salary, (ii) annual incentive bonus, and (iii) long term incentive equity awards, each of which is reviewed annually. The President and Chief Executive Officer has formed an internal management compensation committee ("Management Compensation Committee") consisting of himself, the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, the Executive Vice President and General Counsel, and the Senior Vice President, Human Resources. The Management Compensation Committee reviews each executive's total compensation and performance annually, including against achievement of corporate goals and personal objectives and against available market data, and presents its recommendations to the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee considers the Management Compensation Committee recommendations and separately evaluates and determines the total compensation of all officers of the Company annually, including the Named Executive Officers.

The Compensation Committee generally holds meetings in conjunction with the regular meetings of the Board of Directors, though it may meet more or less frequently. Executive officer compensation packages, including annual incentive bonuses for the then-current calendar year, base salary adjustments for the following calendar year and the grants of equity incentives under the Company's 2007 Plan, are typically discussed during the last meeting of a calendar year. In deciding on total compensation packages for Named Executive Officers, the Compensation Committee considers such factors as: (i) market-based data, which is gathered annually through participation in salary surveys such as the Radford Life Sciences Survey (the "Radford Survey"), and is reported based upon such criteria as company size, geographic location, title and job responsibilities, (ii) compensation practices of biotech and pharmaceutical companies, including those (x) with similar financial conditions, (y) in the geographic region of the Company, and (z) having a comparable size or management structure, (iii) the extent to which management has achieved the Company's stated corporate goals for the calendar year, and (iv) management performance reviews prepared by the Management Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee has not adopted a formal policy to individually weigh the impact of each of these factors in its determinations.

Corporate Goals

Corporate goals are defined and approved by the Board of Directors following internal discussions and planning exercises held by the Company's senior management. Corporate goals include the goals identified from time to time in the Company's public filings and are directed generally to timely advancing the development of the Company's proprietary Surfactant Replacement Therapies (SRT) pipeline and managing the financial and fiscal health of the Company within the approved financial plan and in accordance with any guidance that the Company may give the financial markets. The corporate goals of the Company are established at a level that the Company's Board of Directors believes will be difficult to achieve but are realistically achievable with significant and sustained effort by the Company's executive officers.

The Company's corporate goals in 2007 included (i) taking actions necessary to gain regulatory approval in the United States of the Company's new drug application for Surfaxin® for the prevention of Respiratory Distress Syndrome in premature infants, including filing a Complete Response to the approvable letter that the Company received from the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) in April 2006, (ii) research and development activities to advance the Company's SRT pipeline, including new formulation development, initiating a Phase 2 clinical trial for children up to two years of age suffering with Acute Respiratory Failure and development milestones for Aerosurf™ (a combination drug-device product that unites the Company's capillary aerosolization technology with the Company's SRT and has the potential to obviate the need for endotracheal intubation and conventional mechanical ventilation), (iii) investing in quality systems and manufacturing capabilities, including continuing improvements and upgrades at the Company's manufacturing operations in Totowa, New Jersey, and construction of new analytical and development laboratories in Warrington, Pennsylvania, (iv) identifying potential collaboration agreements and strategic partnerships in the international and domestic markets for the development and potential commercialization of the Company's SRT products, and (v) securing additional capital to support the Company's activities, including potentially from business alliances, commercial and development partnerships, equity financings and other similar opportunities.

A discussion of the key individual components of the Company's executive compensation packages are set forth below.

Base Salary

Base salary and base salary adjustments are determined for each executive based a review of such factors as (i) the executive's (A) title and position, (B) contribution to achieving the corporate goals of the Company, (C) individual performance and achievements, and (D) level of experience, (ii) comparative compensation information for the position, and (iii) internal equity with respect to other members of the executive team. In reviewing comparative compensation information such as the Radford Survey, the Management Compensation Committee considers compensation ranges for equivalent positions in the Company's marketplace, salary trends in the Company's industry and cost of living indexes. For this purpose, the Management Compensation Committee may refer to national, industry and local salary survey information. Following its deliberations, the Management Compensation Committee recommends base salary adjustments for executive officers for approval by the Compensation Committee. At the request of the Compensation Committee, the Management Compensation Committee may also provide additional information prepared by an independent compensation consultant. The Compensation Committee typically will separately review, deliberate and approve base salary adjustments for each executive officer, including the Named Executive Officers. Base salary adjustments are prorated for all executive new hires, based upon the executive's start date with the Company, and for those executives who may not have been an active employee for the full year. Executives hired in the fourth quarter are generally not eligible for salary increases during the next calendar year, as it is too early in their tenure to determine the executive's performance and contribution to achieving the Company's goals. All compensation matters, once approved by the Compensation Committee, are typically ratified by the Company's Board of Directors and become effective the first day of the following calendar year.

Annual Incentive Bonus

Incentive compensation in each year may consist of cash incentive bonuses, equity awards, or a combination of cash bonus and equity awards, in each case, based upon the achievement of corporate goals and the individual's contribution to meeting those goals as well as achieving individual performance objectives. The primary purpose of the annual incentive bonus is to reward executives for achieving corporate goals and personal objectives in the relevant fiscal year. Each executive is eligible for an annual incentive bonus, which is expressed as a percent of annual base salary, varying dependent upon title. The annual incentive bonus target amount for the President and Chief Executive Officer is 100% of the executive's annual base salary; for Executive Vice Presidents, 70% of the executive's annual base salary; for Senior Vice Presidents, 30% of the executive's annual base salary; and, for Vice Presidents, 25% of the executive's annual base salary. These percentages were selected because the Compensation Committee believes that they reflect the custom and practice in the industry and are sufficient to attract and retain executive talent. The Compensation Committee may, in its discretion, approve a deviation from these percentages when it deems appropriate.

The Management Compensation Committee recommends individual annual incentive bonus awards to the Compensation Committee of the Board, which typically conducts its own deliberations as to each executive's contributions, overall level of compensation relative to market, and position within the Company. Prior to considering individual awards, the Compensation Committee may adjust the aggregate amount available for payment of annual incentive bonus awards to reflect its assessment of management's success in achieving the Company's corporate goals. The Compensation Committee weighs the achievement of corporate goals more heavily for executives in senior positions. As a result, the achievement of corporate goals are primary factors in determining annual incentive bonuses for the Chief Executive Officer and Executive Vice Presidents, who are largely responsible for determining the strategic direction of the Company. The annual incentive bonuses of Senior Vice Presidents and Vice Presidents are based on a subjective balancing of such factors as the achievement by the Company of its corporate goals, the executive's personal contribution to the achievement of corporate goals, the executive's success in meeting individual performance objectives and the executive's total compensation in relation to other executives in the Company.

In addition to providing recommendations for the Company's executives, the Management Compensation Committee recommends to the Compensation Committee the funding of an annual incentive bonus pool for all other employees based upon a maximum annual incentive bonus payout ranging from zero (0%) to twenty (20%) percent of the covered employees' aggregate annual base salary. Once the Compensation Committee has approved funding the pool, the Management Compensation Committee distributes individual employee awards in line with individual performance relative to position, and may, in its discretion, grant a combination of cash, stock options, or both.

Annual incentive bonus awards are typically paid in cash during the first quarter of the following calendar year, allowing the Company sufficient time to reconcile financial statements for that particular year and determine the level at which business, functional and personal performance objectives were attained. However, if the Compensation Committee determines that it is in the best interests of the Company in any year, annual incentive awards may be paid out in the form of equity incentive awards or a combination of cash and equity incentive awards. Annual incentive bonus awards are prorated in the first year for all executive new hires, based upon the executive's start date with the Company, and for those executives who may not have been an active employee for the full year. Executives hired in the fourth quarter are generally not eligible for an annual incentive bonus award during the first year, as it is too early in their tenure to determine the executive's performance and contribution to achieving the Company's goals.

All executive compensation payments and awards, once approved by the Compensation Committee, are typically ratified by the Company's Board of Directors.

Long-Term Incentive Equity Awards

The purpose of equity-based plans that provide for the issuance of awards such as stock options and restricted stock is generally to attract, recruit and reward executives and key employees for their contributions, with a focus on the long-term success of the Company and increased shareholder value. The Company grants long-term incentive equity awards pursuant to the 2007 Plan as approved by the Compensation Committee of the Board, which also serves as the 2007 Plan Administrator. Long-term incentive equity awards granted to executives under the 2007 Plan generally have a ten-year term and vest over varying periods as determined by the Compensation Committee at the time of the grant.

Although the Compensation Committee has not adopted a formulaic policy to allocate between annual incentive bonuses and long-term compensation, the Company often relies on long-term incentive equity compensation in the form of stock options to motivate its officers and other employees. This practice allows the Company to retain cash for research and development activities and other corporate projects. In making long-term incentive equity awards, the Compensation Committee considers a number of factors to determine the size of grants to individual executives, including the scope of an executive's job responsibilities, past performance, salary level, the achievement of designated milestones, the size of any prior grants, and the size and frequency of grants by comparable biopharmaceutical and life sciences companies. Long-term incentive equity awards for newly-hired employees are typically stock options having an exercise price equal to the market value at the close of market on the date of grant, which is generally the first day of employment. Awards to new hires typically vest annually in three equal installments, starting on the first anniversary of the grant date.

The Management Compensation Committee recommends long-term incentive equity awards for executives to the Compensation Committee, which typically conducts its own deliberations as to each executive's contributions, overall level of compensation relative to market, and position within the Company. The Management Compensation Committee also requests the Compensation Committee to approve the formation of a pool of long-term incentive equity awards for distribution to non-executive key employees of the Company. If such a pool is approved, the distribution of awards is made by a Plan Management Committee pursuant to authority delegated by the Compensation Committee. The Plan Management Committee currently consists of the same executives that comprise the Management Compensation Committee. Awards for executives and key employees, other than new-hire awards, typically vest twenty-five percent (25%) on the date of the grant with the remaining options vesting ratably over a three-year period, becoming fully exercisable on the third anniversary of the date of grant.

All long-term incentive equity matters, once approved by the Compensation Committee, are typically ratified by the Company's Board of Directors.

Incentive Equity Granting Practices

The Compensation Committee reviews and approves the grant of long-term incentive equity awards to executives at various times throughout the year. The Compensation Committee of the Board also delegates to the Plan Management Committee its authority under the 2007 Plan to make grants of incentive equity awards to, among other things, newly-hired employees and awards to non-officer employees. Such awards are valued at the closing market price on the date of grant. This delegation facilitates the pricing of new employees' equity awards at the closing market price on the first day of their employment, the date of grant. The Company does not have a program or policy in place to coordinate the grant of equity awards either prior to the public announcement of potentially positive news or after the public announcement of potentially negative news.

2007 Compensation Reviews for Named Executive Officers

The Named Executive Officers' initial base salary, annual incentive bonus award and certain long-term incentive equity awards are determined pursuant to the terms of employment agreements between the Company and each Named Executive Officer. Additional annual cash or annual incentive equity bonuses, if any, are solely at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. In evaluating the individual performance of an executive, the Management Compensation Committee and the Compensation Committee do not adhere to a strict formulaic process to determine the components of compensation, or the relative mix of such components, and may, in their discretion, consider and give weight to such additional factors as the overall contribution of an executive, teamwork skills and leadership qualities.

Based primarily on its review of the Radford Survey and the 2007 BioWorld Executive Compensation Report, a compilation of compensation information for over 200 biotech and pharmaceutical companies which the Company purchased for this purpose, the Compensation Committee did not approve any increase in base salary over the base salary in effect in 2006 for Dr. Capetola and Messrs. Cooper and Lopez, but did approve a 3% increase in Dr. Segal's base salary and a 5.4% increase in Mr. Katzer's base salary.

With respect to the annual incentive bonus, the Compensation Committee determined that the Company had successfully achieved approximately 80% of its corporate goals. Therefore, the Compensation Committee reduced the aggregate target amount available for payment of executive annual incentive bonuses by 20%. As discussed above, the target amount for each executive's annual incentive bonus is determined by multiplying the executive's target bonus percentage by his or her base salary. Based on its review of the individual contributions by the Named Executive Officers to the achievement of the Company's corporate goals and their success in achieving their respective personal objectives, the Compensation Committee approved Dr. Capetola's annual incentive bonus in the amount paid to him in 2005 and authorized bonuses to Messrs. Cooper and Lopez in amounts equal to approximately 92% and 94%, respectively, of their available remaining target bonus dollars. The Compensation Committee approved bonuses of $70,000 to each of Dr. Segal and Mr. Katzer. This amount represented 107% and 130%, respectively, of Dr. Segal's and Mr. Katzer's available remaining target bonus dollars. In making these awards, the Compensation Committee indicated that the amounts were appropriate to bring the total compensation package to a level relative to the Radford Survey data and recognized both executive's significant contribution to the successful filing with the FDA of the Complete Response to the Approvable Letter and Mr. Katzer's leadership in successfully implementing improvements and upgrades to the Company's manufacturing capabilities at its manufacturing operations in Totowa, New Jersey.

During 2007, the Compensation Committee authorized the award of two stock option grants to each Named Executive Officer and an additional grant to Dr. Segal. See the Grants of Plan-Based Awards Table for the individual awards to Named Executive Officers. In making these grants, the Compensation Committee looked at the total long-term compensation opportunities already available to each executive, including prior options granted to the executive and the current value of prior options, the tenure of the executive, the executive's performance relative to other executive's and relevant market data in the Radford Survey and the 2007 BioWorld Executive Compensation Report. The additional grant to Dr. Segal was based on a review of market surveys and intended to bring his overall position in line with comparably placed officers in the industry. In awarding stock options, the Compensation Committee did not take into account the grants of restricted stock made in October 2007 ("2007 Restricted Stock") to Drs. Capetola and Segal and Messrs. Cooper and Lopez, which were issued to replace previous grants that had been treated as shares of phantom stock on the books of the Company. The 2007 Restricted Stock will vest on the date that the Company's first drug product becomes widely commercially available, as determined by the Company. Prior to vesting, the 2007 Restricted Stock is non-transferable and subject to cancellation upon termination of a grantee's employment with the Company.

Deferred Compensation

Executives of the Company, as well as all other employees, are eligible to defer a portion of their annual base salary, up to the IRS contribution limits, on a pre-tax basis, to the Company's qualified 401(k) Plan. At the end of each quarter, the Company currently funds a company match in the amount of fifty (50%) percent of each employee's regular contributions made during the quarter, paid in Company common stock.

Severance and Change in Control Benefits

The Company has entered into employment agreements with all of its executive officers, which agreements contain severance and change in control provisions under pre-defined criteria. Such criteria may include termination of employment as a result of a reduction in the work force, position elimination, office closing, job relocation beyond a certain distance, performance, mutually agreed resignation, or terminations within certain periods of time following a change in control of the Company. The Company believes these benefits are necessary and appropriate to remain competitive in the marketplace, to attract executive talent, retain top executive talent, and ensure that executives act in the best interest of the stockholders. Please see the chart under the heading "Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control" on page 26 below for a summary of the estimated potential payments and benefits that would become payable upon termination or employment or a change of control.

Deductibility of Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, provides that compensation in excess of $1 million paid to an executive officer is not deductible by the Company unless it is performance based. Base salary does not qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m). It is the Company's general policy to structure compensation programs that allow us to fully deduct compensation to executives. The Compensation Committee may make payments that are not fully deductible to ensure competitive levels of total compensation for executives or, in its judgment, may make payments that are otherwise necessary or appropriate to achieve the Company's compensation objectives.

(2) Represents the compensation costs of 2007 Restricted Stock for financial reporting purposes for the year under FAS 123R, rather than an amount paid to or realized by the Named Executive Officer. The FAS 123R value as of the grant date for the 2007 Restricted Stock is spread over the number of months of service required for the grant to vest. There can be no assurance that the FAS 123R amounts will ever be realized.

(3) Represents the compensation costs of stock options for financial reporting purposes for the year under FAS 123R, rather than an amount paid to or realized by the Named Executive Officer. See Note 9: "Stock Options and Stock-Based Employee Compensation" to the Company's consolidated financial statements set forth in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 (the "10-K") for the assumptions made in determining FAS 123R values. The FAS 123R value as of the grant date for the options is spread over the number of months of service required for the grant to vest. In addition, ratable amounts expensed for grants that were granted in prior years are included - that is, amounts in respect of grants made in 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006. There can be no assurance that the FAS 123R amounts will ever be realized.

* For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, there were no Securities Underlying Unexercised, Unearned Options. For readability, the column titled "Equity Incentive Plan Awards: No. of Securities Underlying Unexercised, Unearned Options" has been removed.

 For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, there were no Unearned Shares, Units or Other Rights that have not vested. For readability, the column titled "Equity Incentive Plan Awards: Market or Payout Value of Unearned Shares, Units or Other Rights That Have Not Vested" has been removed.

(1) Options granted vest and become exercisable in four equal installments on the date of grant and the first, second and third anniversary of the grant, and expire as listed above, which is the tenth anniversary of the grant.

(2) Options granted vest and become exercisable as to one fourth on the date of grant and in twenty-four equal installments at the close of each month for the following twenty-four months. The options expire, as listed above, on the tenth anniversary of the grant.

(3) Options granted vest and become exercisable upon the earlier of either New Drug Application approval or 4 years from the date of grant (December 13, 2006). The options expire, as listed above, on the tenth anniversary of the grant.

(4) As granted, options granted vest and become exercisable as to one fourth on the date of grant and in thirty-six equal installments at the close of each month for the following thirty-six months. In December 2005, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors recommended, and the Company agreed, to accelerate the vesting of all stock options with an exercise price of $9.02 or greater. As the exercise price met this criteria, the remaining portion of the option grant that was not vested at that time became fully vested and exercisable subject to a written "lock-up" agreement that the executive must refrain from selling shares acquired upon the exercise of such accelerated options (other than shares needed to cover the exercise price and satisfy withholding taxes) until the date on which the exercise would have been permitted under the option's pre-acceleration vesting terms.

(5) Options granted vest and become exercisable as to one fourth on the date of grant and in thirty-six equal installments at the close of each month for the following thirty-six months. The options expire, as listed above, on the tenth anniversary of the grant.

(6) Options granted vest and become exercisable in three equal installments on the first, second and third anniversary of the grant, and expire as listed above, which is the tenth anniversary of the grant.

(7) 2007 Restricted Stock granted October 30, 2007 under the 1998 Plan to replace certain shares of phantom stock previously granted to each Grantee and to be released upon commercialization of the Company's first product.

OPTION EXERCISES AND STOCK VESTED

During 2007, none of the Named Executive Officers exercised any stock options and none of the 2007 Restricted Stock awarded to the Named Executive Officers vested.

POTENTIAL PAYMENTS UPON TERMINATION OR CHANGE IN CONTROL

The Company has entered into employment agreements with each of its Named Executive Officers. These agreements provide for, among other things, certain payments and other benefits if an executive's employment terminates under circumstances specified in the agreement or if there is a "change in control" of the Company. In addition, these agreements provide for non-competition and non-solicitation agreements of varying duration as follows: Dr. Capetola - 15 months, Messrs. Cooper, Lopez and Katzer and Dr. Segal - 12 months.

The following table describes and quantifies estimated potential payments and benefits that would become payable under the executive's employment agreements if the executive's employment terminated on December 31, 2007, or if a change of control occurred on that date. The amounts contained in the table are based on each executive's compensation and, where applicable, the Company's closing stock price as of December 31, 2007.

(1) Dr. Capetola's employment agreement provides that, upon a change in control of the Company and assuming Dr. Capetola remains employed with the Company, his annual bonus in each of the 3 fiscal years that end in the 36 months following the change in control must be at least equal to the largest annual cash bonus received by the Dr. Capetola in the 3 years preceding the change in control.

(2) Equity acceleration represents the incremental value as defined in FAS 123(R) resulting from the acceleration of the unvested stock options and restricted stock held by each executive on the assumed termination date of December 31, 2007, the vesting of which would be accelerated upon the applicable triggering event to the extent provided by the terms of the executive's employment agreement. In the event that the fair market value on the termination date is less than the exercise price of the unvested options, the equity acceleration compensation is zero. The number of shares remaining unvested under each executive's stock option and restricted stock awards is set forth in the "Outstanding Equity Awards" table.

(3) The noted executive's employment agreement provides that, upon the date of the denoted separation, the executive's outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock awards will vest in full and become fully exercisable.

(4) The noted executive's employment agreement provides that, upon termination, the executive's bonus is equal to the largest annual cash bonus received by the executive in the 3 years preceding the change in control multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of days the executive was employed with the Company in the current fiscal year and the denominator of which is 365.

(5) Dr. Capetola's employment agreement provides that a termination is considered "termination in connection with a change of control" if his employment is terminated by the Company other than for cause or by Dr. Capetola for Good Reason during the 36 months following the change of control or if he voluntarily terminates for any reason within 30 days of the 6 month anniversary of the change in control.

(6) Dr. Capetola's employment agreement provides that, upon a termination in connection with a change in control of the Company, his severance is equal to three times the sum of his base salary and the largest annual cash bonus received by him in the 3 years preceding the change in control.

(7) Dr. Capetola's employment agreement provides that health benefits for him and his participating family members at the time of termination will be maintained for 3 years following Termination in connection with a change in control.

(8) The noted executive's employment agreement provides that, upon termination, the executive's severance is equal to two times the sum of the executive's base salary and the largest annual cash bonus received by the executive in the 3 years preceding the change in control, or, as to Dr. Capetola, the 3 years preceding a termination by the Company without cause or by Dr. Capetola for Good Reason.

(9) The noted executive's employment agreement provides that the executive's and the executive's participating family members at the time of termination health benefits will be maintained for 2 years after termination.

(10) The noted executive's employment agreement provides that, upon a change in control of the Company and assuming the executive remains employed with the Company, the executive's annual bonus in each of the 2 fiscal years that will occur in the 24 months following the change in control must be at least equal to the largest annual cash bonus received by the executive in the 3 years preceding the change in control.

(11) The noted executive's employment agreement provides that upon a termination by the Company without cause or by the executive for Good Reason, the executive's severance is equal to the sum of the executive's base salary and the largest annual cash bonus received by the executive in the 3 years preceding the change in control.

(12) The noted executive's employment agreement provides that the health benefits of the executive and the executive's participating family members at the time of termination will be maintained for 1 year.

(13) The noted executive's employment agreement provides that the termination is considered "termination in connection with a change of control" if the executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for cause or by the executive for Good Reason during the 24 months following the change in control.

(14) The noted executive's employment agreement provides that the employee is entitled to placement counseling assistance in the form of reimbursement for expenses incurred by the executive for counseling and related activities in the 12 months following the date of termination, up to a maximum of the amount reported in this table.

(15) Upon a change in control, executives may be subject to certain excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code. The noted executive's employment agreements provide that the executives are eligible for reimbursement of those excise taxes and any additional federal, state, local and excise tax resulting from such gross-up payments. The Company calculated the amounts reported in this column assuming an excise tax rate of 20% and a federal tax rate of 35%.

(16) Mr. Katzer's employment agreement provides that, upon a termination in connection with a change in control of the Company, his severance is equal to the sum of his base salary and the largest annual cash bonus received by him in the 3 years preceding the change in control. If termination occurs prior to the receipt of an annual cash bonus, that year's annual cash bonus will be equal to 25% of Mr. Katzer's then current base salary.

(17) Mr. Katzer's employment agreement provides that, upon termination, his severance is equal to 50% of the sum of his base salary and the largest annual cash bonus received by him in the 3 years preceding the change in control. If termination occurs prior to the receipt of an annual cash bonus, that year's annual cash bonus will be equal to 25% of Mr. Katzer's then current base salary.

(18) Mr. Katzer's employment agreement provides that health benefits for Mr. Katzer and his participating family members at the time of termination will be maintained for 6 months after termination.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

There were no transactions between the Company and any related party to the Company in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), requires the Company's directors, officers (including a person performing a principal policy-making function) and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities (collectively, "Reporting Persons") to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of the Common Stock and other equity securities of the Company. Reporting Persons are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all of filings they file make under Section 16(a) and the Company is required to identify in this proxy statement those Reporting Persons who failed to timely make such filings. Based solely on a review of the copies of any such filings furnished to the Company and written representations from the Company's officers and directors, the Company believes that all Reporting Persons of the Company complied with the filing requirements under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act during the year ended December 31, 2007.

VOTING PROCEDURES

The presence, in person or by proxy, of at least a majority of the holders of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to establish a quorum for the transaction of business. Shares represented by proxies pursuant to which votes have been withheld from any nominee for director, or which contain one or more abstentions or broker "non-votes," are counted as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the Annual Meeting. A "non-vote" occurs when a broker or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner votes on one proposal, but does not vote on another proposal because the broker does not have discretionary voting power and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

On each matter properly brought before the Annual Meeting, holders of shares of Common Stock will be entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held by such holder as of the Record Date.

Proposal I. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast, in person or by proxy, at the Annual Meeting. The six nominees receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of the shares present, in person or represented by proxy, and voting on the election of directors at the Annual Meeting will be elected as directors. Shares represented by all proxies received by the Board of Directors and not so marked or so otherwise indicated via telephone or Internet as to withhold authority to vote for any individual nominee or for all nominees will be voted (unless one or more nominees are unable to serve) for the election of the nominees. Where the stockholder properly withheld authority to vote for a particular nominee or nominees, such stockholder's shares will not be counted toward such nominee's achievement of a plurality.

Proposal II. Approval of the proposal to act on the reappointment of the firm of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2008, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast, whether in person or by proxy.

Abstentions are included in the number of shares present or represented and voting on each matter and, therefore, with respect to votes on a specific proposal, will have the effect of negative votes.

Shares subject to broker "non-votes" are not considered to have been voted for the particular matter and are not counted as present in determining whether a majority of the shares present and entitled to vote on a matter have approved the matter.

A stockholder can revoke a proxy before the close of voting at the Annual Meeting by:

- i) Entering new instructions on either the Internet or telephone voting systems before 7:00 p.m. (EDT), June 10, 2008;
- ii) Contacting the entity that delivered the stockholder's original proxy card. The stockholder's new vote must be received before the close of voting at the Annual Meeting on June 11, 2008; or
- iii) Attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (or by personal representative with an appropriate proxy). Stockholders who plan to attend the Annual Meeting in person need to bring a photo ID and evidence of stock ownership as of April 14, 2008. If the shares are not registered in the stockholder's name, evidence of stock ownership can be obtained from the stockholder's bank or brokerage firm.

If any other matter not discussed in this Proxy Statement should be presented at the Annual Meeting upon which a vote may be properly taken, shares represented by all proxies received by the Board of Directors will be voted with respect thereto in accordance with the judgment of the persons named in the proxies.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Board of Directors is not aware of any matters which will be brought before the Annual Meeting other than those specifically set forth herein. If any other matter properly comes before the Annual Meeting, it is intended that the persons named in and acting under the enclosed proxy or their substitutes will vote thereon in accordance with their best judgment.

STOCKHOLDER COMMUNICATIONS

Stockholders and other interested parties may send general communications, including stockholder proposals to the Company's Board of Directors, Chairman of the Board or any individual director. These communications may be sent in the form of a letter to the Company's principal executive offices as follows: c/o Corporate Secretary, Discovery Laboratories, Inc., 2600 Kelly Road, Suite 100, Warrington, Pennsylvania 18976-3622. All communications will be reviewed by the corporate secretary and, unless otherwise indicated in such communication, submitted to the Board, Chairman or individual director, as appropriate.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR NEXT YEAR'S ANNUAL MEETING

Proposals of stockholders intended for inclusion in the Proxy Statement to be furnished to all stockholders entitled to vote at the next annual meeting of stockholders of the Company must be submitted in writing in compliance with applicable SEC rules and the By-Laws to the Corporate Secretary at the Company's principal executive offices, 2600 Kelly Road, Suite 100, Warrington, Pennsylvania 18976-3622, and received no earlier than November 20, 2008 and no later than December 19, 2008. Stockholder nominations of candidates for election to the Board of Directors must comply with the procedures described above under the heading "Stockholder Nominations" on Page 5. In order to curtail controversy as to the date on which a proposal was received by the Company, it is suggested that proponents submit their proposals by Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY MATERIALS

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (e.g., brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement addressed to those stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as "householding," potentially means extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies.

This year, a number of brokers with account holders who are stockholders of the Company will be "householding" the Company's proxy materials. A single proxy statement may be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected stockholders. Once a stockholder has received notice from its broker that it will be "householding" communications to such stockholder's address, "householding" will continue until such stockholder is notified otherwise or until such stockholder notifies its broker or the Company that it no longer wishes to participate in "householding." If, at any time, a stockholder no longer wishes to participate in "householding" and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement and annual report in the future such stockholder may (1) notify its broker, (2) direct its written request to: Investor Relations, Discovery Laboratories, Inc., 2600 Kelly Road, Suite 100, Warrington, Pennsylvania 18976-3622 or (3) contact the Company's General Counsel, David L. Lopez, Esq., CPA, at (215) 488-9300. Stockholders who currently receive multiple copies of the proxy statement at their address and would like to request "householding" of their communications should contact their broker. In addition, the Company will promptly deliver, upon written or oral request to the address or telephone number above, a separate copy of the annual report and proxy statement to such stockholders at a shared address to which a single copy of the documents was delivered.

EXPENSES AND SOLICITATION

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company. Proxies will be solicited principally through the mail. Further solicitation of proxies from some stockholders may be made by directors, officers and regular employees of the Company personally, by telephone, telegraph or special letter. No additional compensation, except for reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses will be paid for any such further solicitation. In addition, the Company may request banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to solicit their customers who have stock of the Company registered in the name of a nominee. The Company will reimburse such persons for their reasonable out-of-pocket costs.
